Art Unit: 3744

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lawton. Lawton discloses a mixer having a first tube 40, a second tube 30 surrounding the first tube. The first tube has a hole 44 fluidly connecting the first tube and the cavity. The recitation of the mixer being for an aircraft air conditioning system is considered to be a mere statement of intended use that does not have positive structural support in the body of the claims.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 3, and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lawton. Lawton discloses the claimed invention except for the recitation of the fluids flowing to the mixer. The type of fluids used in the mixer is considered to be a matter of obvious choice, because no positive structural recitation of the aircraft air conditioning system is in the body of the claims.

5. Claim 2 recites the limitation "the pack" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Art Unit: 3744

6. Claims 4 and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
7. Claims 8-10 are allowed.
8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
